ARTICLE 8

The purposes for which this corporation is organized are the following:

- (A) The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).
- (B) This corporation is not organized and shall not be operated for pecuniary gain or profit. No part of the property or net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in this Article 4. The corporation shall not carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation to such extent as would result in loss of its exemption from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

ARTICLE 9

The affairs of the corporation shall be managed by the Board of Directors. The number of Directors of the corporation and method of election shall be set out in the bylaws.

ARTICLE 10

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended from time to time in accordance with the provisions of the Georgia Nonprofit Corporation Code.

ARTICLE 11

No director of the corporation shall be liable to the corporation for monetary damages for breach of duty of care, or other duty as a director, provided, however, that this provision shall in no way eliminate or limit the liability of a director: (i) for any appropriation, in violation of his duties, of any business opportunity of the corporation; (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law; or (iii) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

ARTICLE 12

Upon the dissolution of the corporation's affairs, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all liabilities of the corporation, distribute, transfer, convey, deliver and pay over all of the assets of the corporation then remaining in the hands of the corporation to any organization qualifying under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code as an exempt organization, to be used exclusively for religious purposes, as described in Article 4 hereof. In the event that for any reason, upon dissolution of the corporation the Board of Directors shall fail to act in a manner herein provided within a reasonable period of time, the Senior Judge of the Superior Court of Gwinnett County, Georgia shall make such distribution, exclusively upon application of one or more persons have a real interest in the corporation or its assets.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed these Articles of Incorporation on the date set forth below.
